DISCLOSURE OF RELEVANT FINANCIAL RELATIONSHIPS FOR PLANNERS, FACULTY, AUTHORS, AND CO-AUTHORS

All persons who influence the content of CME activities are required to disclose relevant financial relationships with any commercial interest if the content of the activity relates to the product lines and services of that commercial interest. This includes planners, activity directors, presenters, authors, and administrative staff who specifically participate in the design and development of content. The intent of this form is to inform planners/presenters of their obligations and to support the FMA in resolving potential conflicts of interest, thus assuring balance, independence, objectivity and scientific rigor in all presented CME.

5. I will submit my PowerPoint or content outline in advance to allow for FMA CME Committee review if requested.

GLOSSARY OF TERMS:

COMMERCIAL INTEREST – The ACCME defines a “commercial interest” as any entity producing, marketing, re-selling, or distributing health care goods or services, used on, or consumed by, patients. Entities that provide clinical service directly to patients are exempted from this definition.

FINANCIAL RELATIONSHIPS - Financial relationships are those relationships in which the individual benefits by receiving a tangible financial benefit (e.g., salary, royalty, consulting fee, honoraria, ownership interest (e.g., stocks, stock options or other ownership interest, excluding diversified mutual funds). Financial benefits are usually associated with roles such as employment, management position, independent contractor, consulting, speaking and teaching, membership on advisory committees or review panels, board membership, and other activities from which remuneration is received, or expected. ACCME considers relationships of the person involved in the CME activity to include financial relationships of a spouse or partner. The ACCME defines “RELEVANT’ financial relationships” as financial relationships in any amount occurring within the past 12 months that create a conflict of interest.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST - Circumstances create a conflict of interest when an individual has an opportunity to affect CME content about products or services of a commercial interest with which he/she has a financial relationship.
